Twelfth Sunday after Trinity
“Why I am a Christian”

From Sunday 6 September we will continue with our said service of Holy Communion in church at 9am, introducing some music gradually. Our 10.30am service will also be open to all whether worshipping in church or online at home and be suitable for all ages. Children’s groups will not happen for the time being, although there will be a short Zoom call after the 10.30 service for the children to have a catch up. If you would like Zoom details please ask Helen. If attending a service in church, social distancing must be observed at all times and face masks worn. Please do not attend in person if you have any symptoms of the virus.
